

SAVAII

Savaii is a young and talented DJ who has made a significant impact in the competitive world of electronic music.

With just one year of experience, this artist has managed to establish a strong presence in the local movement in Marbella, thanks to his solid and powerful sound that energizes every party he plays. Born and raised in Marbella, Savaii has had a rapid rise in his career, collaborating with prestigious labels and sharing the stage with major artists in the electronic genre along the Spanish Costa del Sol. Recently, he embarked on a tour of Asia in collaboration with the Overtones label, which has expanded his reach and recognition internationally. Currently, Savaii is the face of the FITZ club chain, part of the Sounds group, in Marbella and Madrid.

His presence in these iconic venues has solidified his status as one of the most promising and energetic DJs on the electronic scene today. With a bright future ahead, Savaii continues to work hard to take his music to new heights, always seeking to innovate and surprise his growing audience. His passion and dedication have made him a must-have name in the electronic landscape, and his journey is just beginning.
